

MUSICAL AND DRAMATIC.

The City Amusements. At THE CHESTNUT the Hannon Transatlantic Combination will appear this evening. The troupe of acrobats and gymnasts is one of the best that has ever appeared in this city.

At THE ACQUA Lotta will appear this evening for the first time in Philadelphia, in Edmund Falconer's play of the Firefly, which will be produced with new scenery, costumes, etc.

At THE WALNUT Mr. E. L. Davenport will commence an engagement this evening, and will appear as "Hamlet." The tragedy will be presented with all the fine scenery, furniture, appointments, etc., which were prepared some years ago under the superintendence of Mr. Edwin Booth.

At THE AMERICAN there will be an attractive miscellaneous entertainment. The GERMANIA ORCHESTRA will commence a series of performances at Horticultural Hall on Wednesday next, under the leadership of Mr. William G. Dietrich.

THE PEOPLE KNOW.—If there is anything the people thoroughly understand, it is the comparative value of the various medicines offered for their acceptance through the advertising columns of the press in scriptural phrase, they try all, but only hold fast to that which is good. Hence, a medicinal preparation that has been growing in favor for the public for a period of twenty years, and has attained a larger sale than any other remedy of its class ever reached in any country, may be fairly entitled a STANDARD SPECIFIC.

BECAUSE A PERSON HAS A BAD COUGH it should not be inferred that Consumption has set in, although a case of Consumption is rarely met with unaccompanied by a distressing Cough. Where, however, a predisposition to Pulmonary disease exists, a Cough left to itself, strains and racks the Lungs and wastes the general strength, and soon establishes an incurable complaint. In all cases, then, it is the safer plan to get rid of a Cough, Cold, or Hoarseness without delay and for this purpose no remedy acts more promptly or surely, or with more benefit to the organs of the Chest, than Dr. D. Jayne's Expecto-rant, an article scientifically compounded from carefully selected drugs, and which, on trial, will always be found worthy of its world-wide reputation. Sold by all Druggists.

JEWELRY.—Mr. William W. Cassidy, No. 12 South Second street, has the largest and most attractive assortment of fine jewelry and silverware in the city. Purchasers can rely upon obtaining a real, pure article furnished at a price which cannot be equalled. He also has a large stock of American watches in all varieties and at all prices. A visit to his store is sure to result in pleasure and profit.

GRANT BADGER.—S. A. & D. Stern, of No. 724 Arch street, have on hand a finely executed portrait of Grant, in silk, on a badge suitable for the lapel of the coat. The picture and the stars and stripes are interwoven in the style that President Lincoln's was done in the campaign of 1864, and are for sale at reasonable prices.

A WELL-KNOWN FACT.—The Ready-made Clothing at Chas. Stokes & Co.'s is best cut, better made, and better trimmed than any in Philadelphia. The prices the same as before.

NEWSPAPERS, Periodicals, Fashion Plates, and Magazines—both English and American—may be had as soon as published by JOHN TRENWICH, the great news agent. His enterprise and energy have secured for him an extensive patronage, which he continues to satisfy by furnishing the New York papers several days earlier than they can be obtained by the regular mails, and by selling the periodicals and magazines at the lowest possible prices. Those desiring the latest intelligence should visit TRENWICH'S News Emporium, at No. 107 S. Third street.

At THE THEATRE ROYAL, Glasgow, Miss Bateman concluded a very successful engagement last Friday week, during which, in addition to her favorite impersonation of 'Leah,' she has appeared with marked success as 'Lady Macbeth' and 'Juliet.' Her version of the latter part is one of the most poignant we have ever seen. As a delineator of passion, whether affectionate or malignant, Miss Bateman has no present rival.
